

“CREATING YOUR CEREMONY” WORKBOOK

The most important, personal and meaningful part of your wedding day is the wedding ceremony itself. Our goal is to furnish you with a personalized ceremony that reflects the two of you as a couple, your love for each other, your personalities and one that is reflective of your values. This is accomplished by your ceremony being customized created specifically you. A guide to assist you is furnished in the form of a workbook.

The ceremony is composed of many sections such as the introduction, prayers, support of family/friends, readings, consent, promises, vows, ring exchange, blessing, benediction, pronouncement, presentation and much more. You may choose selections from our Creating Your Ceremony workbook just as they are written, combine parts from several selections or even write sections or vows yourselves. You may also choose to personalize it by including any of the many ceremony enhancements offered listed under Ceremony Enhancements on our website or one of your own choosing. Your Officiant is also available to assist you in this creation process.

If you would like to include a family member or friend in your ceremony, you may ask them to participate by reading a love poem, a Bible Scripture or by saying a prayer. If you have an idea of something that you would like to include in your ceremony, be sure to discuss it with your La Donna Officiant.

A checklist and worksheet are furnished to assist you when making selections for your ceremony composition. The ceremony worksheet will be very helpful for keeping track of your selections as is listed in the order in which they are included in the ceremony. The ceremony will be composed from the worksheet, a draft provided for your final approval, the ceremony script finalized, and the wedding performed. If including music, it is good for the musicians or D.J. to have this information. A wedding coordinator will also find this information beneficial.

Most sections of the ceremony have a special meaning, a reason for being there...a purpose. It is up to you as to how you want your ceremony to reflect your love for each other before your family and friends on your wedding day. Many sections are optional, so select what feels comfortable to you.

Your ceremony should be your personal reflection!
